When to Contact Emergency Services

Reporting a Vulnerable Person

Crime Stoppers

Immediate Threat to Life or Property

Example: a personal injury accident, an assault, armed robbery, fire, medical emergency.

CALL 9-1-1

(Police, Fire, and Ambulance)

Non-Emergency Matters

Example: theft with suspect, break and enter, fraud, scams, harassment, threat of violence with no immediate risk, bike theft, lost/stolen wallet, damage to property.

Police will attend according to a prioritized list of calls or it will be handled over the phone.

CALL 705-876-1122
or report online at www.peterboroughpolice.com

A Vulnerable Person: a person who faces multiple challenges and stressors and may be a danger to themselves.

This may include:

- Tendency to wander
- Inability to communicate
- Drawn toward fascinations or attractions (water, construction sites etc.)
- Social responses (fear of strangers, aggression)

How to Register a Vulnerable Person:

1. Online www.peterboroughpolice.com
2. By attending the station in person at 500 Water Street, Peterborough

You will be asked for identification to demonstrate your relationship to the vulnerable person. This ensures the integrity of the report. In an emergency, responding officers will have access to this information, improving police understanding and response.

Crime Stoppers provides an independent volunteer-run service so you can anonymously report a crime or potential crime.

A reward of up to $2,000 is offered if your information leads to an arrest. Rewards may also be made for information leading to recovery of stolen property, seizure of illegal drugs or arrest on an outstanding warrant.

Submit a tip online at www.stopcrimehere.ca or by calling 705-745-9000 to contact Peterborough Northumberland Crime Stoppers
